YOUR RIGHT OF APPEAL

An appeal against this notice may be made to a magistrates' court within 21 days from the date on which it is served, on the grounds that:

- I. The conduct specified in the community protection notice—
  - a. did not take place,
  - b. has not had a detrimental effect on the quality of life of those in the locality,
  - c. has not been of a persistent or continuing nature,
  - d. is not unreasonable, or
  - e. is conduct that the person cannot reasonably be expected to control or affect.
- II. Any of the requirements in the notice, or any of the periods within which or times by which they are to be complied with, are unreasonable.
- III. There is a material defect or error in, or in connection with, the notice.
- IV. The notice was issued to the wrong person.

IMPORTANT NOTE

In the event of an appeal, any requirement imposed by this Notice to stop doing any specified thing(s) shall remain in effect pending the appeal hearing and action may be taken for non-compliance.

WARNING

If you fail without reasonable excuse to comply with the requirement(s) of this Notice:

- i. you may be prosecuted. If you are prosecuted and convicted the maximum penalty for an individual is a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale (currently £2500) and in the case of a body up to £20,000;
- ii. you may, in the alternative, be given the opportunity of accepting in lieu of prosecution a fixed penalty, of not more than £100.

In addition to the above, the local authority may enter any of your land in the open air without Court order to remedy the problem and charge you for the costs incurred.

The Court before which a person is convicted of failing to comply with a community protection notice may make whatever order the court thinks appropriate for ensuring that what the notice requires to be done is done e.g that works to be carried out and / or seizure / forfeiture of relevant items and for which you may be liable to any costs
